- 6. Incoming cables to the Foreign Office are also distributed to the General Staff, Earshal Tito, Kardelj, the party, and the Polithure or OMM. Outgoing cables of importance get the same distribution.
- 7. Every morning the top officials of the Foreign Office have a meeting to discuss policy matters. This meeting is an ismovation, eterted because the Foreign Office was not being well run.
- 8. Velebit once compleined that no one in the Fereign Office and sufficient party rank of influence. Velebit said that Tugoslav policy was run on two roads; that which the Foreign Office used, and that which the party used. Velebit's complaint was based on the fact that Moscov sent orders directly to the party, and often the Foreign Office heard them only by chances
- 9. The real boss of Yugoslav foreign policy is Vladi Polovich, who represents the party in Moscows.
